19-5 ESTRAYS AND TRESPASSING ANIMALS

19-5-1 IMPOUNDING AND DISPOSAL OF ESTRAYS GENERALLY

It is made the duty of the animal control officer(s) to take into his possession and impound all estrays running at large within the boundaries of the Town and attempt to determine the name and location of the animal's owner. The local state brand inspector may assist with any or all responsibilities assigned to the animal control officer regarding estrays.

19-5-2 RECORD OF ESTRAYS

The animal control officer shall keep an accurate record of all estrays received by him, their age, color, sex, marks, and brands, the time and place of taking and the expense of keeping and selling the same, all animals claimed and taken away, all animals sold and to whom sold and the amount paid, all monies paid to owners after sale, all monies paid into the treasury and all other matters necessary for compliance with the provisions of this chapter. The Town shall provide the animal control officer with a suitable book in which shall be entered the records required by law to be kept by the animal control officer. Such records shall be open to the inspection of the public at all reasonable hours, and shall be deposited by the animal control officer with his successor in office.

19-5-3 TRESPASSING ANIMALS; APPRAISEMENT OF DAMAGES; DETAINING

If any cattle, horses, asses, mules, sheep, goats, swine or other animals shall trespass or do damage upon the premises of any person, the party aggrieved, whether he be the owner or the occupant of such premises, may recover damages by an action at law against the owner of the trespassing animals or by detaining and impounding any or all of said animals trespassing or doing damage thereon. He shall, within forty-eight (48) hours thereafter, deliver said animals to the animal control officer together with a certificate of the appraisal of damage done by such animals. Such appraisal must be made by some disinterested person. It must state the amount of the damage, the time when committed, the name of the person damaged, the name of the owner of the animals, if known, and if not known, it must state that fact together with a description of the animals, including all visible marks and brands. If the animals appear to be owned by different parties, a separate appraisal and a separate certificate thereof shall be made of the damage done by the lot or group of animals which appear to belong to each of the different owners. In such cases, the owners shall be notified separately, and each lot or group of animals shall be advertised and sold separately in the same manner as though the damage had been done by different animals at different times. If deemed appropriate the animal control officer or state brand inspector may authorize the person in possession of the estray to maintain and care for it pending determination and location or its owner. A person authorized to care for any estray(s) is entitled to be reimbursed for expenses incurred according to the prevailing fee schedule.

19-5-4 FAILURE TO NOTIFY; WAIVER OF DAMAGES

No person who finds an estray is entitled to reimbursement for feed and maintenance or for any other cost incurred on behalf of the estray before such time as notice of the estray is given to the animal control officer or state brand inspector. If the party detaining any animals shall fail to deliver them or the certification of appraisal to the animal control officer or the state brand inspector within forty-eight (48) hours after he receives the same or to deposit the same in a post office as provided in this chapter, he shall not be entitled to recover damages under the provisions of this chapter.

19-5-5 DUTY OF ANIMAL CONTROL OFFICER

Whenever any animals are delivered to the animal control officer and the certificate of appraisal is filed with him as provided in this chapter and such certificate states that the owner is unknown, the animal control officer shall immediately examine all brand books or brand sheets in his possession. If the owner be ascertained hereby or if the owner be already known to the animal control officer, he shall, if the owner lives within ten (10) miles, immediately deliver a copy of such certificate of appraisal to such owner, or leave the same at his residence if they cannot be found. If the owner lives more than ten (10) miles away, the animal control officer may at his option deliver such copy personally to the owner, or deposit the same in the nearest post office in a registered letter addressed to such owner. He shall, however, serve a copy in one of the ways provided in the section: provided, that whenever personal service of a copy of any paper is required by this chapter, service by an authorized agent shall be deemed sufficient.

19-5-6 NOTICE OF SALE OF DETAINED ANIMALS

As soon as any such animal(s) are delivered to the animal control officer, he shall immediately proceed to advertise the same as provided in this section except when the owner is known and has been notified, in which case he shall hold said animal forty-eight (48) hours before advertising the same. He shall advertise in a newspaper published in and having general circulation in the county, by publishing a notice in at least one issue of said paper, by posting notices in three (3) public places within the Town, one of which shall be at or near the post office, and he shall deliver a copy of the same to the county clerk or send the same by deputy or registered mail. The clerk should preserve such notice and post a copy thereof. The notice provided for in this section shall state the time when the damage was done and the amount thereof, the name of the party damaged, a description of the animals, including all visible marks and brands, and the day, hour and place at which such animals will be sold, which shall not be less than ten (10) or more than twenty (20) days from the time of posting such notice. The proper notice form shall be provided by the Town.

19-5-7 OWNER MAY PAY AND TAKE ANIMALS; DISPUTED APPRAISAL

The owner of any trespassing animals taken under the provisions of this chapter may at any time before the sale thereof claim and take such animals away upon paying the amount of damages set forth in the certificate of appraisal and the accrued costs, and if such animals are included in a lot or group of animals belonging to other parties against which the damages and costs are assessed as a whole, he shall pay his proportion of the total amount of damages and costs assessed such animals, according to the number of animals he owns when compared with the number of the entire lot or group. If he deems the appraisal too high, he may choose another appraiser having the qualifications provided in this section who with the first appraiser shall make a new appraisal, and if they cannot agree, they shall choose a third appraiser, and the three (3) shall proceed to make another appraisal, and the decision of the majority shall be final.

19-5-8 BILL OF SALE

If such animals are not claimed and taken away by the owner, the animal control officer shall, at the time and place set forth in the notice of sale, proceed to sell such animals, one at a time, to the highest cash bidder. If the owner of any lot of animals to be sold is known, the animal control officer shall sell only enough of the animals to pay the damages and cost, the remainder may be turned over to the owner at any time thereafter; but if the owner be unknown, the animal control officer shall proceed to sell all of said animals so advertised for sale. He shall execute and deliver a bill of sale therefor, and file a copy with the county clerk as provided in this chapter. Such bill of sale shall transfer and vest in such purchaser the full title to the animals thus sold, free and clear of all claims of the owner or any person claiming through the owner. Mantua Town, provided it complies with this chapter, is immune from liability on account of any estray sold at a livestock or other appropriate market.

19-5-9 REDEMPTION BY OWNER WITHIN NINETY DAYS

The owner of any trespassing animals sold under the provisions of this chapter may, at any time within ninety (90) days of the date of such sale, redeem such animals from the purchaser or assignee having the same in his possession, upon paying to such purchaser or assignee the sum for which such animals were originally sold, together with an additional ten percent (10%) and reasonable compensation for the care and keeping of the same. If such purchaser or assignee refuses to give up such animals on the owner proving his title to the same and on his tendering the amount due as provided in this chapter, such owner may maintain an action at law to recover the same, provided that redemption of such animals is not made within ninety (90) days after the date of such sale, such sale shall be absolute and shall vest the title to such animals in the purchaser or assignee. Any person selling or disposing of any such animal within ninety (90) days of its sale under the provisions of this chapter shall notify the purchaser of the same of the date of the original sale and the amount paid for such animal at that time, and if he fails to do so, he shall be liable for any loss that may accrue to such purchaser by reason of such animal being redeemed for an amount less than he paid therefor.

19-5-10 OWNER ENTITLED TO RESIDUE OF PROCEEDS

If any strays or trespassing animals sold under the provisions of this chapter shall, within a period of six (6) months following the date of sale, be claimed and proved to be the property of any person, it shall be the duty of the treasurer at the expiration of such time to pay the money received for such animals to the owner thereof, less the amount of damages and the expense of taking, keeping and selling the same. In the event such animals are not claimed as aforesaid, such money shall become the property of the municipality, provided that in case there is a contest between two (2) or more persons claiming to be the owners of any such animals, the treasurer shall pay the residue to the party who shall establish by action his right to the same.

19-5-11 RETAKING ANIMAL UNLAWFULLY

It is unlawful for anyone to take any animal out of the possession of anyone lawfully holding the same under the provisions of this chapter, either by stealth, force, fraud, or to intercept or hinder any person lawfully taking up or attempting to take up such animals.
